Hotel Tester

Imagine being hired by a five stars hotel but not for a job in cleaning and secretary if not to test the hotel facilities. As you just have heard being an hotel tester is a real thing, these people are interested in the hotel world and are professional judges for them. They spend up to two nights in the hotel and they have a lot to test. First the hotel location this is very important because you have to know if the hotel is near interesting points of the city you are visiting. Second the facilities this is one of the funniest parts of working as an hotel tester you get to spend a day doing all the activities the hotel gives to the guests you go to the spa, pool, activities etc. Third is the food because hotels are known for the food you eat and your stomach can have by eating all the food in there. Last but not most important you have to write a big review about the hotel talking about every aspect of the facility to let know the personal what's wrong and great about their hotel.

Puppy sitter

Have you ever question who takes care of puppies that haven't been adopted, well you wish being one of those who take care of them because this is a real an awesome job. Imagine every morning you get to work, but instead of having your angry boss yelling at you for something you did wrong, you are welcomed by a bunch of happy puppies that have been waiting for you all morning. Your job would be feeding and playing with them you'll have to make sure they don't sleep all day and keeping them active. Isn't beautiful? You spend your day with happie puppies that will want petting and play
